Three great shows, all No. 1, at the opera-house to-morrow and Tuesday nights.

Every lady and gentleman should take a guess at the large pumpkin at Swartz's gallery.

Grand Triple Alliance performance at the opera-house to-morrow and Tuesday nights.

The Globe skating academy will give another grand mask carnival about December 30.

Look out for the grand display of fireworks in front of the opera-house to-morrow night.

The ladies of the First Presbyterian church will give a pink tea party on the night of the 21st.

Messrs. James Woods and Billy Griggs by sent up a splendid lot of refreshments to the Gazette staff last night.

Mary Burns, a colored nymph du pays, tried to end her woes by the morning route yesterday, but failed.

The funeral of Henry Byrne yesterday morning was attended by a large number of people, many of whom loved him as a brother.

Henri & Wetter's Monster Pantomime and Parlor Circus company, three shows in one, at the opera-house to-morrow and Tuesday nights.

The mite sociable of the Ninth Street Methodist church will be held on Tuesday night at the residence of Mr. J. P. Nickles, 605 West Belknap.

N. E. Grammer has purchased the interest of his partner, E. M. Macy, and will continue to supply their old patrons from the same location on the square with nothing but A-1 goods in the drug line.

In conversation with J. B. Mitchell of the J. B. Mitchell Mitchell Co., yesterday it was learned that their display and exhibition of art work that has been conducted at their salesrooms for the past few days has been a most successful one. Fully 1500 persons have called and gazed at the jar of beans and registered their names. The count will take place at their store on the 23d of this month when the lucky number drawing the handsome curly hair, six-drawer, domestic sewing machine will be made known.

A School Boy Fined.

A few days ago a young boy named Walter Smithy, a cripple, was tried before the recorder for disturbing the peace by alleged bad conduct at the Belknap street school. He came clear of the charge. Yesterday he had another trial on a similar charge (but a separate offense) in the county court, which resulted in his conviction and fine of $1, the minimum penalty.
